AVENEER
SEWING · EMBROIDERY · QUILTING

A Brother Aveneer sewing machine is shown in a well-lit room. The machine is white and black, with a large needle and foot assembly. It is stitching a blue and white quilted fabric. A tablet is attached to the side of the machine, displaying a digital design. In the background, a window shows a view of greenery, and a framed quilt hangs on the wall. A small white box labeled "AVENEER" is on the table next to the machine.
